Approval of Board meeting minutes for April 27, 2026
Minutes Approved Unanimously

Assignor's Report:

Assignments for regionals have been completed.

Cinco de Mayo: No ejections

Memorial Day Tournament coming up; should not be a problem to cover all games. 4-5 guys coming from out of town.

Schedule in for GU summer camp games. Recommended to fill those slots quickly.

Bob will attend the MS AD meeting to encourage parents to become umpires.

WOA registration will be closing soon. SBU will require background check and NASO membership. Todd Stordahl said that we could add guys and can backdate them when WOA reopens in August.

Legion begins on May 20th.

Treasurer's Report:

Significant increase in HS games fees.

Revenue is up, but still have unfilled slots.

Operating at a slight deficit year-to-date.

Agenda Items:

- By-Laws Review: Rob shared suggested corrections. Will submit revised version at the next meeting.
- Evaluation Program changes: Larry has resigned from his position as Instructional Chair and Evaluation Coordinator.
 - The board approved $1,500 for Larry's services at a previous meeting. $750 for Instructional Leader and $750 for Evaluation Coordinator. Rich will coordinate with Larry to arrange payment.
- Evaluation Update: Dwayne has developed a numbering system that scores umpires with weighted scores for the different evaluation criteria.

- Legion will be using NFHS rule set until the state tournament. Rich will send out contractual agreements to Gary and Dave. Gary will wordsmith and have the board review before distribution to the general membership.

- New Business
 - Legion will be using NFHS rule set until the state tournament. Rich will send out contractual agreements to Gary and Dave. Gary will wordsmith and have the board review before distribution to the general membership.
 - Dwaine suggested polo shirts with logo for Legion tournament umpires. Kevin moved that we purchase those polo shirts. Gary seconded. Motion was approved unanimously.
 - Senior Men's League: It was suggested to raise fee by $10/game/umpire. Matt will contact Brett to confirm the increase in the game fees.
